Minimum Tax

There is a minimum tax (privilege tax) of $100 on every regulated investment company regardless of whether the regulated investment company exercises its right to do business.

Filing Extension

An extension of time to file your tax return is NOT an extension of time to pay your taxes. You are automatically allowed an extension of up to six months to file your return. However, if the prepayment requirements have not been met on or before the original due date, penalties will be assessed.

Prepayment Requirements

Every regulated investment company having a Utah tax liability of $3,000 or more in the current year, or which had a tax liability of $3,000 or more in the previous year, must make quarterly estimated tax prepayments.

A regulated investment company is not subject to the prepayment requirements for the first year that regulated investment company is required to file a return in Utah if the regulated investment company makes a payment on or before the due date, without extension, equal to or greater than the minimum tax.

Prepayments are due in four equal payments on the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, 9th and 12th months of the regulated investment company's taxable year. Regulated investment companies may elect to make the quarterly prepayments equal to 90 percent of the current year's tax or 100 percent of the prior year's tax. As defined in Section 6655, Internal Revenue Code, the applicable percentage of the required annual payment for annualized income installments, for adjusted seasonal installments, and for estimated tax payments based on the current year tax liability is the following:

Installment	Percentage
1st	22.5
2nd	45.0
3rd	67.5
4th	90.0

If a taxpayer elects a different annualization period than the period used for federal purposes, the taxpayer must make an election with the Tax Commission at the same time as provided in Section 6655, Internal Revenue Code. Prepayments should be made with form TC-559, Corporation Tax Payment Coupon Booklet.

Regulated investment companies not making the required tax prepayments are subject to a penalty as stated in "Penalties," below.

Exceptions to Penalty

1. Annualized Exception: A regulated investment company may annualize its income before determining the amount of each installment. It is recommended that federal guidelines be followed in determining annualized income. If the regulated investment company meets the annu-

Important Information Regarding Extension of Time to File

alized exception at the federal level, for any installment, indicate by checking the appropriate box on form TC-20R, line 14.

2. Recurring Seasonal Exception: A regulated investment company with recurring seasonal income may annualize its income before determining the amount of each installment. It is recommended that federal guidelines be followed in determining seasonal income. If the regulated investment company meets the seasonal exception at the federal level, for any installment, indicate by checking the appropriate box(es) on form TC-20R, line 14.
3. Prepayment of minimum tax:
 - a. Regulated investment companies that met the prepayment requirement in the current year and that had a tax liability of $100 (the minimum tax) for the previous year, may choose to prepay the minimum tax amount of $100 on the 15th day of the 12th month instead of four increments of $25.
 - b. Regulated investment companies that met the prepayment requirement in the previous year and have a tax liability of $100 (the minimum tax) in the current year, may choose to prepay the minimum tax amount of $100 on the 15th day of 12th month instead of four increments of $25. In this scenario, the regulated investment company must pay $100, not 90 percent.

Penalties

The penalty for failure to file a tax due return by the due date is the greater of $20 or 10 percent of the unpaid tax. In addition, if a tax balance remains unpaid 90 days after the due date, a second penalty, the greater of $20 or 10 percent of the tax balance, will be added for failure to file timely.
